THERE IS HOPE IN SERBIA

We had the privilege of being with AGWM missionaries Jason and Andrea Morrison and their Serbian ministry colleagues February 13-19. The national church in Serbia has faced many challenges, as have most in the Balkans. Ethnic tensions and the war in Ukraine affect the whole region.

Several of the ministry leaders came through a Teen Challenge program in Novi Sad many years ago. They are a powerful testimony of deliverance and restoration. That same program today desperately needs our prayers. It is under threat of being destroyed.

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full. John 10:10 NIV

These words of Jesus are so true for Serbia. There is hope and optimism. Even with all that has happened, men and women bound in addiction are being set free and living abundant, redeemed lives. Please keep this ministry in your prayers and keep CompassionLink in prayer as we begin this new partnership with the Morrises and the people of Serbia.

EVANGEL UNIVERSITY GLOBAL IMPACT WEEK

What a joy for Angelia and me to be a part of Evangel University's Global Impact Week. Forty years ago, in the fall of 1983, I was planted as a student at Evangel. Just as a tender plant grows and matures, so did I.

It's a privilege to sow seeds back into students, just as many at EU did for me. We shared with students how missions needs everyone's gifts and talents; it's not just for those with degrees in theology, but also for agriculture, business, engineering and chemistry. Please keep students in your prayers as they make decisions about their future.
